

Dr Marios Taramides DDS MDS

Cosmetic Dentistry, Oral Implantology, Periodontology

Born in Nicosia in 1965, son of the founder of the Nicosia Dental Polyclinic Dr George Taramides studied in Germany and received his diploma from the Albert-Ludwig-University of Freiburg in 1991. He specialized as a periodontist and prosthodontist in Sweden for 3 years and achieved his Masters degree from the Lund University in Sweden in 1994. He has attended in various implantology workshops and clinical trials in Sweden. He is the president of the Cyprus Periodontal Society, since 1999 and member of the European Periodontal Association. He loves the piano and poetry and he is an amateur photographer.